

FROM THE LIBRARY

Summer Reading has begun! We officially started summer reading programs for Be Creative @ Your Library on Wednesday with storyteller Priscilla Howe. Next week, we'll be amazed by returning magician Eric Vaughn. Eric has consistently had great shows for the kids as well as adults. Weekly sessions are held each Wednesday at 9 AM and 11 AM. Reading logs are available for students as they need them. Just a reminder, children age five and under must be accompanied by an adult.

Once again this year, we've started a "guessing contest." For the kids, we have a jar of Runts for them to guess the number inside. For the adults, we have a jar of regular and peanut M&M's for them to guess the number. Enter your "guess" every time you're in the library. We'll announce the winners at our Summer Reading party on Wednesday, July 29. The winners will get the candies.

On Friday, June 5, we'll have our first Teen night for the Express Yourself @ Your Library program. The Game night will be held from 7 to 9 PM. Our teen programs are for kids going into 6th grade and above. Encourage your teens to attend; we'll have plenty of activities to keep them going and snacks for them to munch on.

This Saturday is Moonlight Madness, don't forget to come see us at the Moonwalk from 2 to 9 PM at Main & Meridian. We'll have popsicles for everyone as well.

Are you aware of a bell that rings when you enter the library? That bell is a counter. During the last two weeks of May, you may be surprised to know that we've had over 1,400 people entering the library. Keep up the good work, patrons! We're glad you're reading!
